Numb. 3793

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Monday March 16. to Thursday March 19. 1701.

St. James's, March 17. The following Addreſs from the County of Hertford was preſented to Her Majeſty by the High Sheriff, and the Members of Parliament for the ſaid County.

To the Moſt Serene and Mighty Princeſs, Anne, by the Grace of God, Queen of England, Scotland, France, and Ireland, Defender of the Faith, &c.

The humble Addreſs of the High Sheriff, Deputy Lieutenants, Juſtices of the Peace, Grand Jury, and other Gentlemen, preſent at the Aſſizes holden at Hertford the 9th day of March, Anno Dom. 1701.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE Your Majeſty's moſt faithful and dutiful Subjects, afflicted with unſpeakable Sorrow and Concern for the Death of our late great and moſt Heroick Prince, King William the Third, of Glorious Memory; do, from the bottom of our Hearts, Condole with Your Majeſty on that ſo ſad an Occaſion. And ſince it hath pleaſed Almighty God to take to himſelf our ſaid late King, we cannot but Adore the Divine Goodneſs, that (for our Comfort) we have ſtill left amongſt us Your Majeſty's moſt Illuſtrious Perſon to fill the Throne of Your Anceſtors: Whereupon we do with all Humility, and gladneſs of Heart, Congratulate Your Majeſty's happy Acceſſion to the Crown; And as we never doubted, but that under Your Majeſty's moſt auſpicious Government we might effectually enjoy the Freedom of our Laws both in Church and State; ſo are we in a more particular manner convinced thereof, from Your Majeſty's late Gracious Declaration to Your Honourable Privy Council on that Occaſion, for which (as in Duty bound) we render Your Majeſty our moſt hearty Thanks: And as an Aſſurance of our unalterable Affections and Gratitude to Your Majeſty, we do hereby unanimouſly Promiſe and Engage our ſelves to Serve, Aſſiſt, and Defend Your Majeſty to the utmoſt of our Power, againſt all Foreign and Domeſtick Enemies that ſhall attempt to diſturb Your Sacred Perſon and Government. And that it may pleaſe God to bleſs Your Majeſty with a Happy, Long, and Proſperous Reign over us, and with Iſſue that may ſucceed Your Majeſty to the Imperial Crown of this Realm, ſhall be the conſtant and hearty Prayers of Your Majeſty's moſt devoted and obeaient Subjects.

To the Queen's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Common-Council, of the City of Glouceſter, in Council aſſembled.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE Your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, humbly beg Leave to Condole for the great Loſs of our late moſt Renowned King, William the Third, of ever Bleſſed and Glorious Memory.

We look upon Your Majeſty's happy Acceſſion to the Throne of Your Royal Progenitors, (which we ſincerely Congratulate) the greateſt Bleſſing to theſe Kingdoms, and all Europe; and (as it is our Duty) we ſhall on all Occaſions ſhew our utmoſt Zeal and Readineſs to defend Your Majeſty againſt the pretended Prince of Wales, and all other the Enemies of Your Perſon and Government.

Dated under our Common Seal the 14th Day of March, in the Firſt Year of Your Majeſty's Reign, 1701.

Mr. Daniel Williams, with the reſt of the Proteſtant Diſſenting Miniſters in and about the City of London, viz. Preſbyterians, Independents, and Anabaptiſts, waited on Her Majeſty in a Body with an humble Addreſs.

St. James's, March 18. The following Addreſſes were this day preſented to Her Majeſty, which will be printed at large in the next Gazette.

An humble Addreſs of the Juſtices of the Peace of the County of Middleſex was preſented to Her Majeſty by Joſeph Bennet Eſq; and the reſt of the ſaid Juſtices, introduced by his Grace the Duke of Bedford.

An humble Addreſs of the Juſtices of the Peace of Weſtminſter was preſented to Her Majeſty by Martin Ryder Eſq; and the reſt of the ſaid Juſtices, being likewiſe introduced by his Grace the Duke of Bedford.

An humble Addreſs of the High Sheriff, Juſtices of the Peace, Grand Jury, and other Gentlemen, aſſembled at the Aſſizes holden at Stafford for the County of Stafford, on Thurſday the 12th of March, in the Firſt Year of Her Majeſty's Reign, was preſented to Her Majeſty by the Hon. Henry Paget Eſq; one of the Repreſentatives of Parliament of the ſaid County, introduced by the Rt. Hon. the Lord Chamberlain.

An humble Addreſs of the High Sheriff, Juſtices of the Peace, Deputy Lieutenants, Grand Jury, Gentlemen and Clergy, of the County of Bedford, at the Aſſizes held for the ſaid County the 12th of March, in the Firſt Year of Her Majeſty's Reign, was preſented to Her Majeſty by Samuel Rolt Eſq; introduced by the Rt. Hon. the Earl of Kent.

An humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Steward, Aldermen, Bayliffs, Burgeſſes, Gentlemen, and others, the Inhabitants of the Town and Borough of New Windſor, was preſented to Her Majeſty by William Peiſley Eſq; Steward of the ſaid Borough, introduced by the Rt. Hon. the Lord Viſcount Fitzharding.

Which Addreſſes Her Majeſty received very graciouſly.

Vienna, March 11. N. S. The King of the Romans has received the Compliments of all the Perſons of Quality at this Court, upon his being appointed Generaliſſimo of the Imperial Forces on the Rhine, and his Equipage is preparing with all poſſible diligence. Several Imperial Regiments of Horſe and Foot are marching towards the Rhine from the Hereditary Countries; and 'tis ſaid, this Army will conſiſt of about 80000 Men. Divers Officers of the Regiment of Huſſars of Col. Paul Diack are come from Italy to make Levies, for augmenting the ſaid Regiment from 1000 to 1200 Men. The Reinforcement of 14000 Horſe and Foot lately ordered to our Army in Italy, continue their march thither with great diligence.

Hanover, March 21. N. S. The Dukes of Wolfembuttle having entered into Engagements with France, and received conſiderable Sums of Money from that Crown, for the raiſing and keeping on foot a Body of Troops for the Service of the French, and the ſaid Dukes perſiſting therein, notwithſtanding the Emperor's Admonitory Letters requiring them to quit the Meaſures they had entered into, ſo much to the Prejudice of the Empire; It was found neceſſary to make uſe of other Methods to bring thoſe Princes to reaſon, and accordingly the Troops of Hanover and Cell, in purſuance of the Imperial Mandates were ordered to March from their ſeveral Quarters; And on the 19th Inſtant the Gates of this City having been kept ſhut all day, a Battalion of 600 Men marched out in the Night, and having joyned ſeveral other Battalions they ſurprized the Town of Peyna, in which was a Garriſon of 200 Men who were all made Priſoners; after which they advanced towards Brunſwick and Wolfembuttel, to ſecure all the Paſſes and Avenues near thoſe places, ſo that the Forces which the Duke of Wolfembuttel had raiſed with French Money, being deprived of the Communication with thoſe two Cities, might the more eaſily be ſecured in the ſeveral Quarters where they lay diſperſed, which ſucceeded ſo well, that a whole Regiment of Horſe which were Quartered in ſeveral Villages thereabouts was immediately ſeized, and we have received accounts, That ſeveral other Troops and Companies belonging to the ſaid Dukes of Wolfembuttel are in like manner diſarmed and made Priſoners. General Somerſfeld with a Body of the Allies Forces made himſelf Maſter at the ſame time of the Town of Gotzlar, to prevent any Succours that might come from the Duke of Saxe-Gotha. The Elector of Hanover, and the Electoral Prince his Son, and the Duke of Cell, are gone to Borgdorff, and 'tis believed the Duke Rudolfus Auguſtus the Eldeſt of the 2 Brothers, Dukes of Wolfembuttel, will come thither to endeavour to accommodate Matters.

Hague, March 24. N. S. An Expreſs arrived here yeſterday in the afternoon with the moſt afflicting News of the Death of the King of Great-Britain; but the Account he brought at the ſame time of Her Majeſty Queen Anne's being Proclaimed, and of Her Majeſty's Moſt Gracious Declaration to Her Council, together with the Unanimous Reſolutions of the Parliament, gave great Satisfaction and Encouragement, and did very much allevjate the general Sorrow. The States General aſſembled immediately, and ſent Expreſſes to the ſeveral Provinces for all their abſent Members to repair hither; This morning early the States General met again, as alſo the Council of State; They are reſolved to purſue with the utmoſt Vigour all the Meaſures which they entred into with His late Majeſty, and accordingly the Forces of this State continue their march, and the States are ſending Deputies to their ſeveral Camps. Monſieur Dickvelt is gone by order of the States to lie near Nimeguen. The States intend to ſend Extraordinary Ambaſſadors to England, to Congratulate Her Majeſty's Accenſion to the Crown; And 'tis ſaid, Monſieur Dickvelt will be ſent for back, in order to be one of the ſaid Ambaſſadors.
